reasons exist - Are there not many Brahmin candidates waiting in the list for years. They should be absorbed first, by being reassigned to units, wherein they could get early chances.

8) Subs. There are about 200 Brahmin candidates waiting for class II appts. They are waiting from 1938. Orders of the General Secretary in paragraph 6, are noted.

31.1.42 9) A register of the waiting Br. II class candidates is put up for kind perusal. In response to a direct enquiry with these waiting candidates, it is found that as many as 64 candidates have not replied to the same. They cannot be taken as waiting for appointments. 138 candidates have replied that they still want the jobs for which their names are registered. Even among these 138, a good many are working in lower service in the units in which their names are registered. Again many of them are employed in other than Govt service. These candidates are distributed over a hundred units and hardly more than 2 candidates would be waiting in a unit, if they are transferred transfered from unit to unit. Hitherto transfer of candidates was liberally resorted to, whenever supplimentary II class A lists were called for by the unit officers. But it has now become somewhat difficult and inconvenient to do so on account of the large number of units and of the comparatively few candidates waiting in them.

10) In the above circumstance, we have, of course, to call for applications and prepare and issue approved lists as per rules of recruitment. But in view of the fact that we have not called for applications from Ex. candidates for the last 4 years, and of the there are a huge number of there ex-employed candidates, ~~there~~ a huge number of applications will be received and comparatively few of them will have to be selected. The present rules do not provide for a proper and definite method of selection of candidates. Therefore a good deal of time and labour is required to select candidates and issue approved lists.

11) Just at this juncture, when Govt. have appointed a public Service Commission and are considering the revision of rule it is rather not desirable to prepare lists and issue them to all the units. At the same time, it is not possible to keep by the requisitions that are being received from some of the unit officers for the immediate issue of approved lists of one or two candidates.

12) In the above circumstances, one or two cases of candidates recommended by Heads of Depts are being put up for such orders as are deemed fit.

13) In additions to the units mentioned in para 4, the following units also have since requested for issue of lists.

Through

The War Information Officer,
General and Revenue Secretariat,
Public Offices, Bangalore.

S i r,

I beg to bring the following lines to your kind consideration and favourable orders.

My name was enlisted in February 1939 against Serial No.1 in "A" List of Typists and Steno-Typists, issued to the unit of the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, Bangalore Division, Bangalore. During the past three years, I had not had my chance. I understand that there is only one Typist's place and that too has been created temporarily.

I had submitted in my representation in May 1941, through the Registrar, General and Revenue Secretariat, and in my application dated 7th August 1941 in reply to your office memo No.1061-96/C.R.B. dated 2nd August 1941 calling for information on some points, that as there is only one Typists place and as the present incumbent will in all probability, be absorbed, there is no chance for for me of getting an appointment in the Unit of the Deputy Director. In the circumstances, I had prayed for a change to the Unit of the General and Revenue Secretariat where I have been working as a temporary Typist under Lump Sum Grant provision. Up till now there has been no response.

As there is absolutely no chance for me in the Unit of the Deputy Director, as a Typist, I request that my name may kindly be changed to the Unit of the District Educational Officer, Kolar, to the kind and class of appointment of teachers in Kannada Boys' Middle Schools.

I beg to remain,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant.
